About Our High School.

Madison, Wis., April 3, 1911. Superintendent C. W. Schwede, Grand Rapids, Wis.

Dear Sir:—Inspector Terry has filed his report of his visit to your high school a day and a half on March 30th and 31st.

The report is very favorable and contains no suggestions for the consideration of the board. Mr. Terry considers the school to be in very good condition and he gives it a good rank among the high schools of the state. As the inspector states that he talked very fully with yourself and with many of the teachers individually, making such suggestions as seemed proper, I need not further repeat his comments here.

The equipment is satisfactory and your usual appropriations for additions and repairs will keep it in good condition.

The janitor service was excellent and Mr. Terry was very much pleased with the cleanliness and general attractiveness of the buildings.

I assure you of my pleasure in receiving so favorable a report.

Yours truly,
(Signed) C. P. Cary,
State Superintendent.

A NUISANCE THAT SHOULD BE ABATED.

One of the nuisances that confronts the citizens of every town or city of any size in this section is that of the modern hobo or tramp. He is as care-free as the wind, drifting wherever his fancy and the railway systems of the country see fit to take him. Life is one continual vacation for him; one long day off, in which there is neither toil nor worry. The world owes him a living and he is on hand at all times to make the collections. It may not be a very good living, but it is an ideal existence, but then he does not believe in looking a gift horse in the mouth, but makes the best of that which comes to him.

Whether the tramp is satisfied or not with our treatment of him, we always do about the best we can. We meet him on the threshold with outstretched hands and conduct him before one of the dignitaries of the city, where his case is looked into carefully, and generally he is invited to stay with us for a few days. He always accepts the invitation, and then he is taken and given a bath, his clothes are washed up and he is given a good bed to sleep in at night. Then when his visit is over he is taken to the edge of the city and given a start on his way, conducted, generally, by one of our officers to see that he does not get lost. If this is not an ideal existence, it is at least better than the average, and for a man who has nobody to care for, and is not too particular, should prove quite a happy state.

If it were one of our own citizens who did a half that the tramp does to make himself obnoxious, we would have him up on the habitual criminal statute and probably give him a year or two in the state prison at hard labor, where he would have to learn a trade and earn his board for a time, at least.

It has often been suggested that these tramps who wander about thru the county be put to work when they are arrested, and in some parts of the country this is done, the consequence being that the hoboes fight shy of those particular places, and they are not bothered very much with this class of gentry. Just why our city and county authorities do not do it together and fix things so they will have to work here, is more than the average man can understand. There are many roads adjacent to the city that need a great deal of work on them to make them so that they will be passable during the entire year, and it is on these thoroughfares that the tramps could be put to work. One overseer could take care of a lot of them, and while they might not pay a great profit on the investment, it would be better than they are doing now.

Last week three tramps were sent to the county jail for ten days each. This means that the county will have to put up about thirty dollars for their keep during that time, and nobody will get any return for the expenditure.

The farmers and those living in the city also, are strong and persistent kickers about the highness of the taxes, and yet they consent to have a large amount of money spent each year for the support of tramps, and then go out and spend more money for work that they might as well compel the tramp to do.

There are many towns in the east where they make the tramps work, in case they are arrested, and they are careful to arrest all that come their way, for they have everything ready for them and it is no trouble to put them to work. The people of Wood county should do the same. They are letting good money go to waste and at the same time encouraging idleness.

A timely item along this line is taken from the Marshfield News of last week, and is as follows:

"We would have fewer tramps in this vicinity if there were a stone pile for the chance comers to work at," says Chief of Police A. F. Gerwin. "If we had a first class pile of rock for the accommodation of these traveling gentry, there would be less expense to the city. Every tough that is committed to the county jail costs the city from $20 to $40, which is too much. We try to discourage them by committing five or six to jail just at the opening of spring, and then the word is passed along somehow and not so many come here."

"They do not seem to be so anxious to get inside the jails in the summer time. In Waupaca I understand they have had a regular run of tramps all winter and that a large number of them have been committed to jail, at some expense to the city. We have been more fortunate up here, as we have simply given the customary night's lodging and have sent most of them along."

The record for tramps came near being broken in March, when 150 were received at the police station and given a night's lodging.

Mrs. Henry Planke of the east side died on Tuesday, cause of death being blood poison. Deceased was thirty-five years of age and leaves a husband and five children to mourn her death.

Carlson Kampe.

Mrs. Olive Carlson of this city and Mr. Frank E. Kampe of Hesperia, Iowa, were married on Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock, at the Scandinavian Lutheran church, Rev. H. B. Johnson performing the ceremony. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Nels Christensen, the latter having been a bridesmaid to Mrs. Carlson when she was married the first time.

The church had been very tastefully decorated for the occasion with ferns and cut flowers and the wedding march was played by Miss Clara Carlson, daughter of the bride.

After the ceremony the invited guests repaired to the home of the bride on Fourth street, where a six o'clock dinner was served, and a pleasant evening spent. Among those from out of town who were present at the ceremony were Mr. and Mrs. John Bergerson of Arkdale, father and mother of the bride.

The bride is well known in this city, having made her home here during the past twenty-one years and has many friends to wish her happiness and success on her journey thru life. The groom is a well-to-do mechanic, who enjoys a good blacksmithing and general repair business at Hesperia. They expect to leave for their home in Iowa the latter part of the week.

Baseball Meeting.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Grand Rapids baseball association was held at the city hall on Friday evening. The directors elected for the ensuing year were John Nash of Nekeos, Levi Lehoux of Port Edwards, O. R. Roenius, O. A. Norlund, C. A. Dixon, Arthur Mulroy and A. B. Sator of this city.

It is the intention of the association to have a good team again this season and preparations will be commenced at once with this end in view. A meeting of the directors will be held this evening to elect officers and a manager.

Deed Was Not Right.

Attorney Brzeanu received a deed from Sam Preston on Monday for the property on the river bank across from the Tribune office, and it was supposed for a few minutes that the matter was all settled up, but upon investigation it was found that there was an error in the acknowledgment of the paper, and it had to be sent back for correction. It is probable, however, that the matter will be straightened out before a great while and that the building can be removed and the place cleared up and parked during the coming summer.

George Was Misjudged.

George Pappas, the Greek fruit man, returned to this city on Monday after being absent a week in Milwaukee and other points of interest. George was somewhat surprised when he reached his place of business to find the place entirely empty of stock, which some of his creditors had taken charge of during his absence. George stated that he had no intention of leaving his creditors in the lurch, but that he was just away on a visit and intended to open up his business here again.

President—L. P. Witzer.
Treasurer—W. H. Reeves.

The report that Senator Stephenson is ill is not true. He is not ill nor has he been sick. He is still cracking hickory nuts with his teeth, can run a hundred yards in ten seconds and do a standing jump over nine beer kegs stood in a row. This idea that because a man has passed his eightieth mile stone he is liable cash in at any minute doesn't apply to Uncle Ike. HOLDUP MEN GET SALOON MAN'S WAD

Two men who are supposed to be hoboes held up Louis Schall on Saturday night and relieved him of what money he had, a sum amounting to about $150.

It was about 12:30 o'clock and Mr. Schall was looking the place up for the night when two men came to the door and rapped for admission. When Mr. Schall answered the knock one of the men at the door called him by name and said they wanted to get half a dozen bottles of beer. Mr. Schall opened the door and when he did so he was looking right into the muzzles of two revolvers. The men pushed their way into the saloon and told him to hand over the cash, which, under the circumstances, Mr. Schall decided to do.

The men took the money and made a rapid sneak, and notwithstanding the fact that Mr. Schall notified the police at once, it was impossible to find the men at that time.

On Monday two men were seen making their way toward Port Edwards, and Underhill Welch, who was at Nekoma, was notified that two suspicious characters were going his way, and he was told to pick them up and bring them back. Mr. Welch looked for the men on his way back and picked them up between this city and Port Edwards, and bringing them to this city placed them in jail.

Mr. Schall was unable to identify the men as being those who held him up, but stated that one of them had been in his place of business the afternoon of the robbery.

The men were taken before Justice Pomalville on Tuesday and a vagrancy charge preferred against them. They gave their names as Sam and Charles Holmlander and said that their home was at Little Falls, Minnesota. They claimed that they were not tramps but had been visiting friends in this locality.

When first seen they were carrying bundles, but when picked up by the officers did not have anything in their possession.

They pleaded guilty to the charge of vagrancy and were given ten days each in the county jail.

Nothing Like a Change.

Washington, D. C., April 10.—Washington gazed today when the special report of Representative Palmer of Pennsylvania, which led to the purging of the house payroll and the saving of $182,000 in salaries, was made public, revealing record breaking sin-cures.

A 13 year old girl, daughter of the chief doorkeeper, was found to be drawing $1,200 a year under the title of "clerk to the doorkeeper." Thirty-eight extra policemen, authorized when, during the Spanish-American war, some one said that there was a plot to dynamite the capitol were still on the payroll, costing annually $39,000.

Two telegraph operators, drawing $1,400 each, assigned to a wire long ago discontinued, were still on the rolls.

Six thousand dollars was saved by abolishing the salaries of employees of the clerk's document room. The room was abolished sixteen years ago. Almost an equal sum was saved by stopping the pay of employees "attendants in the library," the library having been removed many years ago from the capitol.

Minstrels Pronounced Good.

A large crowd turned out on Friday evening to attend the minstrel show given by the boys of the high school, and they were not disappointed at the entertainment that was furnished them.

The boys were gaily garbed in true negro style, while burnt cork had been used so freely that their own mothers did not know them. There were a number of good solos by the boys, while the choruses were especially strong.

The music for the occasion was furnished by the high school orchestra under the direction of Prof. Merrill and this part of the program furnished no small amount toward the success of the occasion.

The affair was given for the benefit of the high school athletic association, and the fact that about seventy dollars were cleaned up made the boys feel well paid for the labor they had expended in making it a success.

Now Close on Sundays.

The new plan of closing the post-office on Sundays was inaugurated in this city with the first of the present month, and notwithstanding the fact that there were a few of our citizens who were against the change, things seem to move along with about their usual speed. The general delivery window will be kept open for a short time each Sunday, and those who have boxes will be able to get their mail, but it will be so arranged that a part of the force will be able to be absent all day each Sunday, which will be better than it has been in the past.

Auto Club to Organize.

A paper has been circulated among the automobile owners of the city for the purpose of organizing an automobile club in this city. Nearly all the owners in the city have signed the paper, and an organization will be effected some time in the near future.

Made an Assignment.

J. W. Hams of Randolph has made a voluntary assignment for the benefit of his creditors and Fred Kruger of this city has been appointed trustee in the case. The stock of goods will be sold at auction.

Easter Dance.

—An Easter dance will be held at Posley's hall at Biran on Monday evening, April 17th. Good music and at the usual good time assured.

Out of Our Jurisdiction.

The Tribune in receipt of a letter from Madison which asks that we interest ourselves in the bill now pending in the legislature which proposes to make a five mile "dry" zone around the state university.

While we would like very much to know that the students at the state university remain sober, we feel that it is up to the people of the state to say whether the city of Madison shall have saloons or no saloons, or where they shall be located. That is up to the people of Madison.

There is another thing. If a boy is sent to school until he graduates from a high school, and then goes to the university, he ought, according to all precedent, to have a little sense, and be able to make use of his brain, if he has any. He has had all the advantages there are, and should be able to govern his actions to a certain extent. If his natural tendencies are so vicious that it is necessary to build a bar where force is used to keep him from going to school, and back in one day, in order to keep him from making a hog of himself, he is a hopeless case, and nothing can be done for him in this world.

If he cannot get whiskey he will get opium or morphine, or cocaine or some other dope equally bad, and go wrong in spite of his keeper. Any young man who is not able to stand on his own legs and see the difference between the man who leads a temperate life and the one who succumbs to the home habit, isn't much of a young man after all, and the world need not worry about which path he chooses on the road to ruin.

Preachers in the pulpit tell us that we strengthen ourselves by withstanding temptation, others say that the weak point in the Lord's prayer is where it says: "Lead us not into temptation."

Of course there are two sides to every story, and while we do not believe in surrounding the rising generation with all the vices on the calendar, as is now done, probably, at Madison and other university towns, still we do think that the boys should exercise their own mind to a certain extent and thus fit themselves for future needs.

To Train Teachers of Agriculture

To meet the demand by teachers of the state for instruction in agriculture so that they may be prepared to present the subject effectively in the graded and high schools of the state, the College of Agriculture of the University of Wisconsin will offer special teachers' courses during the coming summer. Instruction in home economics, including millinery, sewing and cooking will also be given. Instruction in agriculture for teachers will consist of general agronomy, plant propagation, school gardening, a study of soils, elementary live stock judging, testing of milk, agricultural bacteriology, agricultural chemistry and farm architecture.

The Soo road has made an appropriation of $25,000.00 to be used in the development of a high power stump pulling machine to be built on the lines of the power skidders now in use in the lumber woods. The appropriation was made to give the land owner of the northern section of Wisconsin, Michigan and Minnesota a mechanical appliance that will reduce the cost of preparing his land for the plow. The machine developed through this appropriation will be entered in the prize contest of the Wisconsin Advancement association. A prize of $1,000 will be given by the association to the owners of the most practical stump pulling device. The contest will be held the latter portion of May, somewhere in Wisconsin.

An action has been started in the circuit court of Shawano county against every member of the county board. The action is based on the claim that the board members have taken money from the county which did not belong to them. The charges are that through expensive meetings, fooling away and killing time and working in committee work where such work was not required. There is liable to be a thorough inquiry which may result in the county recovering much money spent for board meetings.

NEKOOSA

(From the Times)

Sunday, Frank Drake, a young man who lives with his wife and babe just across the river at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Drake, met with an accident that came near costing his life. He found part of the barrel of an old rifle and for what purpose depended on it. He concluded he would load and fire it for what purpose depended on it. He put in one end of the barrel of powder, placed a liberal load of powder in, then a wad, following which he put in a number of steel balls from a ball-bearing bicycle, all of which he rammed down in true hunter fashion. After he had loaded the thing he concluded the iron plug was not tight enough, so he took a hammer and with the muzzle not six inches from his body, pointing directly toward his side, he proceeded to pound on the plug. The result, of course, is not difficult to imagine. The force of the blows ignited the powder and the explosion naturally followed. Several of the balls, or steel pellets, were picked out of the wound by the young man himself, but one, entering between the fourth and fifth ribs, penetrated one lung and lodged probably under the left shoulder blade. This conclusion was arrived at by the physician after probing for the ball as far as he felt it safe to do so.

Consul Lewis Koehn of Nekoosa Camp No. 2370, M. W. A., was elected at the county convention held at Lindley yesterday. As one of the two delegates to represent Wood county at the state convention to be held at Neenah, the other delegate being L. L. Lomith of Marshfield, E. F. Erickson of Nekoosa was chosen as alternate for Mr. Koehn and John Hoffman of Marshfield as alternate for Mr. Lomith.

Mr. and Mrs. Mortimer Brandage of New York state visited relatives here over Sunday. They expect to reside at Grand Rapids where Mr. Brandage has secured employment with the Oberlin Manufacturing Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Lyne returned to Pittsville last Thursday, following an extended visit at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Lyne and Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Henderson.

Ernest Barney and sister, Miss Sylvia, of Grand Rapids were Sunday guests of relatives here.

The Nekoosa Times has been sold by Mr. Whithier to Si L. and Geo. A. Gould, who come here from Indiana. Mr. Whithier will go to Monmouth, Mich., where he will engage in the milling business.

A new family are located at the Gaynor Co.'s marsh arriving last week from Kewaskum, Wis.

Another arrival is the Mike Chapiński family who came down from Grand Rapids Monday and are at the Colon and Black marsh.

Mrs. E. E. Warner received a letter last week from Mrs. C. B. Hardenberg written under date of Feb. 25 from Pretoria, Africa. The length of time in transmission of mail makes us realize how very far away they are from us. The family have recently moved into a commodious eight room house having twelve acres of ground laid out in garden, orchard and shrubbery. They were enjoying the genial climate, and reveling in an abundance of peaches, apricots and other fruits.

Miss Mary Foley is making a visit of some length with Miss Luella Taylor in Armenia.

Mrs. S. N. Whittlesey has been spending a few days at Port Edwards at the home of her daughter.

Miss Lillie Warner is still a sufferer from the effects of her recent attack of erysipelas.

Harold Foley made a trip to Nekoosa Monday.

J. J. Emmert is battling with a very heavy cold contracted a week or more ago.

Miss Virginia Fiegel took the five o'clock train Tuesday afternoon and will be in Grand Rapids remainder of the week where she will attend teachers examinations.

ALTDORF

(From the Times)

There will be an A. S. of E. meeting at Vesper, Sunday, April 17 at 1 p. m. at the cemetery. There will be election of officers and an address by Geo. P. Hambrecht of Grand Rapids. Everybody is cordially invited to be present.

John Zarbush and family of Nekoosa spent Sunday at John Arnold's.

Mrs. Anna Keyes and John Deere of Grand Rapids spent Sunday at the home of Mrs. Keyes' sister, Mrs. P. Wuerch.

We certainly ought to have a very pleasant and low riding community for the next year with Alois Haer as constable and O. J. Lea as Justice of the Peace. P. Wuerch was elected assessor for this year.

We understand that there is considerable agitation in the town of Huesen in regard to establishing a township high school to be located at Vesper. This is certainly a good move and we hope to see it turn out better than mere talk. Here is a good chance for our newly elected assessor to begin to show what he can do. Push it along.

Last Tuesday occurred the death of Rosa Schiller, youngest daughter of Mrs. Anton Schiller. The funeral was held at the church here Thursday at 10 o'clock. Rev. Wiltz conducted the services. This is the second death in this family within a year. Mr. Schiller having died last May. The stricken family have the sympathy of the whole community in their sad affliction.

There have recently been 480 acres of land taken up by settlers west of here. Let the good work go on.

MAY PROVE FATAL.

When Will Grand Rapids People Learn the Importance of It?

—Bleedings is only a simple thing at first.

But when you know it's from the kidneys;

That serious kidney troubles follow;

That dropsy, Bright's disease may be the result.

You will gladly profit by the following experience. 'Tis the statement of a Grand Rapids citizen.

Mrs. Emma Eaton, 629 Lee St., Grand Rapids, Wis., says: "I do not know of a better kidney medicine than Doan's Kidney Pills. In 1907 I publicly endorsed this preparation and now I gladly confirm my former statement. My kidneys were in bad shape. The kidney secretion was unnatural and caused me no end of annoyance. I also had pains in my back and was told that I had diabetes. When I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills I thought that they might help me and I procured a supply at J. E. Daly's Drug Store. From the first this remedy took effect on my trouble and brought relief. Since then my kidneys have been doing their work properly."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

PITTSVILLE.

(From the Record.)

There is a move on foot in the county to revive the nearly exhausted Farmer's Society of Equity. Meetings have been held in and about Marshfield the past month and in some places the society is coupling up with other societies of the agricultural and stock breeding variety. Possibly one of the strongest societies of this nature in the county was organized at and about Vesper under several different local organizations several years ago and while these locals have not held regular meetings there are a number of the farmers who belonged that have kept up the spirit and have made it profitable in the buying of registered stock sires for community use.

Alex Moore, a former Pittsville, is doing so well in the barber business at Vesper that he has made the purchase of an automobile—the first to be owned in that village. It is expected that more will make their appearance there the coming summer.

Edw. Smith and son Edward, of Grand Rapids, were in the city the latter part of last week, guests of his brother, Al Smith. Mr. Smith expects to move on the farm of J. D. Potger at the marsh and will run the place for Mr. Potger the coming summer.

Jack Palmer received word Friday of last week to join his company in the southern part of the state and left the same day. He is employed with a Wisconsin Telephone crew for the summer.

About Seed Corn.

Editor Tribune:

For the benefit of my farmer friends I would suggest that they make several tests of their seed corn before planting. I find more trouble with seed corn this year than ever before. A short time ago I bought two bushels of as fine looking Yellow flow seed corn as I ever had in the store and not a grain of it would germinate. Five minutes labor will enable any farmer to know whether his seed is good or not.

L. M. Nash.

Mr. Nash's advice along this line is well worth heeding, as much of the corn that looks all right will not grow. The trial of a few kernels from each ear that the farmer intends to plant later on may save him the labor of replanting an entire field, as well as the cost of the corn, which is no small item in the spring when money is scarce.

Down in Illinois where the farmers raise large quantities of corn every year, and where the seasons are especially favorable for the raising of corn, the most of it is well ripened as a general thing and will grow. But even in that country the farmers examine each ear carefully, and their familiarity with the product enables them to tell whether it will germinate or not, without making a test of the seed.
